

Notice

The 29th General Assembly of the IUVDT in conjunction with the American Venereal Diseases Association

The International Union against the Venereal Diseases and the Treponematoses is holding its twenty-ninth general assembly in conjunction with the American Venereal Diseases Association at the El Presidente Hotel, Acapulco, Mexico from 23–26 October 1977.

The programme will be:

23 October First executive committee meeting;

24 October Recent advances in microbiology and immunology of gonorrhoea with their practical application including treatment;

25 October (morning) Recent advances in the immunology of syphilis, and (afternoon) Recent advances in the study of STD due to viral and other agents;

26 October (morning) New trends in the epidemiology of STD with special reference to central and South America, and (afternoon) Second executive committee meeting.

Delegates wishing to read papers should send a summary as soon as possible to Dr J. Harris, Praed Street Clinic, St Mary's Hospital, London W2 1NY.

The conference fee of US$25.00 per person and the hotel deposit of US$75.00 per person should be sent to Express Boyd Limited, 4–5 Bonhill Street, London EC2A 4BX (Tel. 01-628 6060—Telex 887775) who are organising the travel arrangements for delegates from Europe. Those from other parts of the world should send their hotel deposit and conference fee to Professor Raphael A. Bustillos Mendez MD (General Assembly Secretary), c/o Koch Overseas de Mexico SA, Benjamin Hill num. 123, Mexico 11 DF (Telex: 017-73855).

Further information may be obtained from Dr F. J. G. Jefferiss, Patchways, St Marys Platt, Sevenoaks, Kent TN15 8NL.